

A Forever Home teams up with

DogGone Natural

We are pleased to align ourselves with Northern Virginia's leading independent pet store for wellness, proper nutrition, supplements, herbal remedies, homeopathics and everything related to pets. Under the guidance of Pet Nutrition Expert; Kimberly Correnti, owner of DogGone Natural, she and her staff of "pet experts" are well versed in a holistic approach to natural healing of the many acute or chronic ailments pets may experience throughout their lifetime.

The two locations of DogGone Natural in Loudoun County provide only suppliers that share their values in serving the interests of their customers and those who bring safe, quality products to the market. Committed awareness in the difference these products can make in the quality of a pet's life, Kim and her staff continually research the availability of thousands and select only those that genuinely inspire them.

About the food provided to fosters from DogGone Natural

Pioneer Naturals - All Life Stages Premium Kibble

HOLISTIC KIBBLE SATURATED WITH ORGANIC FREEZE DRIED INGREDIENTS AND A HIGH CONCENTRATION OF PRE-PROBIOTICS

Pioneer Naturals uses a unique ingredient called PSP which has greater antioxidant activity than Vitamin C, Acai Berries, Blueberries or Vitamin E. PSP has low sugar, low fat and has also been shown to aid against diabetes, enhance immune functions, anti cancer, anti-oxidant values, and antiinflammation properties. This special antioxidant extract is only found in Pioneer Naturals Pet Food.

To see the value of a food so rich in animal protein, the feeding requirements for Pioneer Naturals is substantially less than mainstream diets. The daily portion for an average 50 pound dog is 1 3/4 cups a day, compared to the 3-4 cups or more you would see from other foods. That is the kind of concentration achievable with quality, highly digestible meat.

Guide to Pet Wellness

As you introduce your adopted pet to their new home, remember that this transition period (although exciting) can be quite stressful on both the pet and your family. Emotional and digestive issues are most common, however the Pet Experts at DogGone Natural have dealt with this and a list of other conditions with successful results making them a tremendous resource.

They say “food is powerful”. It protects, repairs and purifies our body”. “It is the basis of all beings, including our pets.” We couldn’t agree more. Fortunately, our rescue animals are fed one of Kim Correnti’s signature brands – Pioneer Naturals. This high quality food has helped a countless number of pets transition from sub-par diets to a very nutritious, easily digestible, and affordable diet.

Over the years we have learned that DogGone Natural is a unique group that offers a superior product line-up of holistic and natural solutions. Their educated staff can help transition your new pet into the family and remedy any problems that may arise over the lifetime of your pet.
